Exhibition Information

I named this exhibition DREAM AND REALITY, because we, ARTISTS, not like «regular» people, have rich imagination and our creative process is not limited by all, what we see around us, but we use imagination., to bring our DREAMS and our VISION to reality in a form of paintings, drawings, sculptures, collages, using big variety of mediums, including even digital! Despite all, mentioned above, I respect basic art education and its principles, like composition, perspective, proportion, etc. When I look at painting, I consider combination of colors, besides composition and strokes and texture, as well as mastery of application. The same time, in black and white drawing, I look at a hand stroke, no matter if it is pencil, pen and ink or brush drawing. Naturally, talented artist can make only few strokes and trained eye immediately will recognize mastery. I would like to thank you for submitting your art to POEOPLE and PAINTING GALLERY and wish you success in your future shows and creative endeavors!

The small village in eastern Hungary is known for its “frescoes” (actually “seccoes”). A number of artists and organizations have joined forces to paint the firewalls of the houses, hoping that the boom in tourism will improve the lives of the locals. This was the dream. But the look on the little girl’s face tells you the reality.

There are so many things in this world that it's hard to agree with. It is difficult for me to understand what is happening in my country now, and as an artist, I express this in my works. Not poster-like, but picturesque, as I can. And, of course, both in my heart and in my paintings, I express the hope for goodness and justice, though..

Dream and Reality

The Dream is an introspective; the naked, harsh and true experience of tens of thousands of humans for whom only one path to happiness is open to them. Someday, that ill-fated little boat could be transformed into the cayuco at the bottom, with her inside and without a rudder, to be the vehicle of her last voyage or her salvation, all under a sky full of doubts and uneasiness.

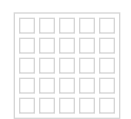

Dreams become the only way to survive reality.

Dream and Reality

The Beatles were a powerful reality, and my painting Now And Then is my golden dream come true. I dream, therefore I am alive. And my fertile existence allowed me to interpret in this painting my dream of enjoying the four Beatles together again. My painting Now And Then is the pictorial expression of a dream that at the beginning seemed impossible and even improbable, but that turned into an imperishable reality, hopefully called to transcend time.

Surface: Paper

This picture came from the dream side of my brain when the phrase "Me Llamo Margarita Cansino" suddenly entered my mind, and which I felt was a message from the spirit of the famous actress Rita Hayworth, reminding me that her real name was Margarita Cansino. And since my name is Margaret, this drew me closer to Rita Hayworth, who, of course I had always wished I were. The little picture is kind of a fantasy of dancing, but the real name "Margarita Cansino." is worked into the design because I think that was the point.
